Alwin Springer Named Grand Marshal of the Festival

His name is synonymous with Porsche performance, and we are very proud to announce that Alwin Springer has agreed to serve as our Grand Marshal for this year's California Festival of Speed (CFoS).

Springer was Consultant and President of Porsche Motorsport North America (PMNA) from October 1989 to 2003, and continued as a rules & regulations consultant to PMNA, where he is still very active. Prior to that, he was the Vice President of ANDIAL, the legendary Porsche tuning company which was created in 1975.

Porsche & VW Lit and Toy Meet/All Porsche Swap Meet (Not PCA Events)

March 7 and 8, these annual shows are back and better than ever. See <http://www.lalilandtoyshow.com/> for more information. Grand Prix & Orange Coast Regions will have hospitality tents on Sunday, come on down and say "hello"

991 GTS Club Coupe Edition

By now I'm sure you have heard of the special 991 Club Coupe edition, created by Porsche to celebrate the 60th anniversary of PCA. Only sixty cars will be produced, one for each year of the club's existence. To buy one of these cars, you need to enter the PCA raffle where the lucky winners will have the right to purchase the vehicle. 59 cars will be sold in this manner. (The last car will be raffled off later this year.) Deadline to enter the raffle to buy a car is March 15. For more info see:

<https://web.pca.org/index.cfm?event=clubcoupe.clubcoupedsp>

History needed for another car!

New owner wants history on their car: 1979 911SC, VIN #9119200935, just purchased at Hoehn Porsche, silver/black, appears to have been stored for at least 10 years, maybe 15. Had a stereo installed in 1998, a Carrera front apron, and a Harley Davidson Motorcycle sticker on the back windshield. West Germany and Porsche grill badges. If you know anything about this car and are willing to share, please contact me at: tb911@tbsoftware.net
